4e — In collaboration with Lauren, you successfully issued a pull request. You've paced your work really well, with decent descriptions (and the occasional entertaaaaaaaining one). But you started just the day before…? By just creating the folder…? I'm tended to bring the proficiency down a notch, but I will apply some consideration to how the two of you collaborated effectively. (+)

4f — Submitted on time (with 51 seconds to go!). (+) (there was a small typo fix applied later, but no need to count that against the overall work)
